WELCOME

to St. Ann & the Holy Trinity Church
Pro-Cathedral of the Episcopal Diocese of Long Island

St. Ann & the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church is a house of worship and community commons in Brooklyn Heights. We are so glad you have come to worship with us. As you know, the ongoing pandemic makes this an extraordinary time that requires us to take precautions to protect ourselves and others. We ask while you are here to please follow all of these health protocols:

- Pre-registration is no longer required.
- Those who have recently tested positive for Covid-19, have Covid-like symptoms, or been in contact with someone who has them, may not attend in-person worship.
- Masks over both nose and mouth continues to be required on church grounds.
- We now sing while wearing our masks!

St. Ann’s is a friendly and welcoming church that is deeply committed to sharing God’s love, caring for creation, and serving our neighbors in need. We remain steadfast in our prayers for the safety of our community, our nation and the world and that all God’s people can live in freedom and peace.

Thank you for joining us!

OPENING SENTENCES

INVITATORY

Officiant    O God, make speed to save us;
People      O Lord, make haste to help us.
All            Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
                As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

PSALM 126 said by all

When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, *
    then were we like those who dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter, *
    and our tongue with shouts of joy.
Then they said among the nations, *
   “The LORD has done great things for them.”
The LORD has done great things for us, *
    and we are glad indeed.
Restore our fortunes, O LORD, *
    like the watercourses of the Negev.
Those who sowed with tears *
    will reap with songs of joy.
Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *
    will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

FIRST READING
Isaiah 42:5-9
Thus says God, the Lord, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it: I am the Lord, I have called you in righteousness, I have taken you by the hand and kept you; I have given you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations, to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness. I am the Lord, that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to idols. See, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare; before they spring forth, I tell you of them.

MAGNIFICAT sung by the cantor
SECOND READING

Luke 4:14-22

Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.” And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.” All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, “Is not this Joseph’s son?”

The Hymnal 1982 #36

1 O glad -some Light, O grace of God the Fa- ther's face,
2 Now, ere day fad -eth quite, we see the eve -ning light,
3 To thee of right be-longs all praise of ho-ly songs,

the-e-ter - nal splen-dor wear-ing; ce - les - tial, ho-ly, blest, our wont-ed hymn out-pour-ing; Fa- ther of might un-known, O Son of God, Life-giver; thee, there-fore, O Most High, our Sa - vior Je-sus Christ, joy -ful in thine ap - pear-ing.

thee, his in -car-nate Son, and Ho-ly Spirit a-dor-ing.
the world doth glo - ri - fy, and shall ex-alt for ev -er.

Words: Greek, 3rd cen.; tr. Robert Seymour Bridges (1844-1930); par. of O Gracious Light

THE APOSTLES’ CREED said by all

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Officiant  The Lord be with you.  People  And also with you.
Officiant  Let us pray.

THE LORD’S PRAYER said by all.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.
SUFFRAGES
